

Johannesburg Expo Centre and SAPS: 10 years of Letsema La Bana

The Rand Show 2017 will see the Johannesburg Expo Centre (JEC) celebrating 10 years of Letsema La Bana with the South African Police Service (SAPS).

Every year, Letsema La Bana is hosted at the JEC during the Rand Show, in conjunction with the SAPS. It is a support programme for the widows and orphans of SAPS officers who have lost their lives in the midst of their heroic efforts to fight crime.

"This is a special initiative that forms part of our CSI for the year," explains JEC CEO Craig Newman. "We are delighted to be celebrating 10 years of this programme, honouring the inspiring men and women who dedicate their lives to public service."

"I am proud to be associated with men and women who care for these families," says Gauteng Acting Commissioner, Lt-Gen Lesetja Joel Mothiba. "We must look after the orphans and widows of the heroes and heroines who died in the line of duty, protecting the citizens of this country."

While the event will be a celebration of dedication and hard work, Craig Newman would also like to appeal for more support for Letsema La Bana. "This programme acknowledges the commitment of the SAPS to serve the community and we should continue to recognise their efforts," he concluded.

South Africa's favourite family event, the Rand Show returns to the JEC from 14-23 April 2017. It's a 10 day experience not to be missed!
